NEWS ABOUT RUSSIA

By Mr. S. Stein,

(Translated from Russian by Rev. E. Fleishman.)

CHURCH LIFE IN RUSSIA.

"Dr. E. A. Evreinoff, in Prague, gave a survey of the condition of the Church in Russia, based on information received directly from Russia, which gives a clear idea of all details of church life during recent years. The Soviet Government commenced its policy towards the Russian Church with a kind of self-satisfied contempt. It counted on the speedy and natural fall of the Church in the communistic environment.

When the Bolsheviks realized that the religious conviction of the people grew stronger, and the cruel treatment by the local Soviet authorities, not only did not destroy the Church, but even increased the authority of the clergy, a plan was worked out in the year 1921, during the time of Lenin, for systematic combat against the Church. A special section, the Third, was formed at the G.P.U., at the head of which was the well-known Evgeny Tuchkoff. Attached to this section were many secret co-workers and informers from the ranks of the laity, clergy, and even from the episcopacy. In every republic and district the Third Section of the G.P.U. had its representatives, who headed a widely spread organization of local workers.

The Third Section of the G.P.U. was closely connected, by the notorious Communist leader Smirovich, with the political office of the Communist Party (the highest State Organization in U.S.S.R.), and became the informing organ of Church matters, in the Police Office, Central Executive and the Soviet of Commissioners in U.S.S.R.

In 1921 the Soviet Government began to form their plans which consisted of the following: —

1. To introduce disorder in the Russian Church.
2. To organize opposition to the Patriarch Tichon.
3. To institute new church organizations, ("The Living Church," "The Renewed," etc.).

In 1924 the plans began to work. Over 130 bishops and many hundreds of priests had to suffer cruel personal persecution. The majority had to pay the price of their lives for being opposed to the Soviet Government, or for not being willing to serve the G.P.U.

The Church, as a matter of fact, was turned into an illegal institution. The condition stipulated by the Soviet Government for making the Church legal was the recognition of the full control of Tuchkoff over the Church.

The lawful successor to the Patriarchal Throne, the Metropolitan Peter, refused the condition and was immediately exiled, the place of exile being kept secret. His successor, Sergei, accepted a number of proposals, and promised not to undertake anything without the knowledge of Smirovich and Tuchkoff. There is a saying in Russia that the Church is governed not by the Metropolitan Sergei, but by the Metropolitan Evgeny (Tuchkoff).

The Metropolitan Sergei's first steps of compromise were followed by further steps. He had to appoint prayers for the Soviet Government; he had to keep secret the G.P.U.'s system of government of the Church; he had to protest against the Pope of Rome, the Archbishop of Canterbury and so forth.

NOTE: — We thank God for the news that the persecution of Believers in Soviet Russia has somewhat abated, but, nevertheless, the sufferings of God's children there are still very acute and we would ask our readers to continue in earnest intercession for this unhappy land and her people.

The Metropolitan Peter sent an epistle from his place of exile to the Metropolitan Sergei and the bishops, blaming the action of Sergei and blessing the episcopacy's disobedience to the Metropolitan Sergei.

The present condition of the Russian Church is seen from the last writing of the Metropolitan Sergei to Smirovich through Tuchkoff. In his report, Sergei asks, as a matter of grace, that the Church be granted those rights which are allotted to her by the Soviet Constitution, and that the persecution cease, the existence of which he is supposed to have denied in the well-known interview." "Novosty Vremya' ("The New Time").

THE END OF RELIGIOUS NEGOTIATIONS.

"It is definitely reported in Moscow that the Metropolitan Sergei has decided to resign from his position as the Head of the Orthodox Church, and to go to his repose. The reason for the resignation is that his policy of bringing the Church into agreement with the Soviet Government did not meet with the appreciation of the clergy or of the laity." "Rul," ("The Helm"), 15th May.

SIXTY PRIESTS SHOT.

"At a meeting organized by Catholics in Czecho Slovakia, a Czech named Skalitsky, who had only recently returned from Russia, said that during his imprisonment in the Soviet prison sixty Orthodox priests were shot. He himself suffered torture and many times was beaten with a scourge.

The report of Skalitsky made a deep impression upon the meeting." "Sevodnya," ("Today"), 17th May.

VIOLENCE UPON THE MUFTI.

"The Chief Moslem Mufti, Risa Erin ben Jachredin, who was called from Ufa to Moscow to sign a declaration denying the persecution of Moslems, refused to sign. The Mufti said that he had lived 75 years without telling a lie, was not prepared to do so in his 76th year, and for that reason would refuse to sign the declaration.

The Bolsheviks needed this declaration for Bolshevik propaganda among the Moslems in the English colonies, but the determined old man refused to give his name to a lie. For refusing to do so the Mufti is now interned in Moscow, communication with Mecca is prohibited to him, and, of course, more severe punishment awaits him." "Novosty Vremya," ("The New Time"), 15th May.

HEATHENISM IN SOVIET RUSSIA.

"The Bolshevistic anti-religious propaganda has brought forth awful results in some districts. In addition to the ruin of morality there has appeared idol worship. North-east of Siberia, where there are many Mongolians, the peasants elected, instead of a priest, a heathen witchman.

In one village the peasants sacrificed a young girl." ("The New Time"), 22nd May.

ILLEGAL RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

"Printers in Soviet Russia are not allowed to publish any Church Prayer Book, or anything of a religious or moral character. Sometimes the Metropolitan Sergei and his Synod are permitted to use the printing press for declarations to the people, but only for the reason that these declarations are intended to strengthen the Soviet's power. The clergy has no other means of communication with the parish.

Therefore, the Church leaders and believers who do not recognize the Metropolitan Sergei are bound to write their communications by hand or typewriter, so as to keep their party advised about Church matters and important present day affairs.

Similar kinds of 'illegal' literature are widely spread over the whole of Russia, by the believers, in order to strengthen their followers in the truth.

The Bolsheviks mercilessly persecute the authors, copyists and distributors of this kind of litrature." "The New Time," 9th May.

FURTHER NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Translated by Pastor R. FETLER.

From the journal "Miera Vēsts" ("The Message of Peace"), May Issue, we have the following information about happenings in Soviet Russia:

"A preacher was invited to preach in a Lutheran Church. The Lord blessed abundantly. The following event happened. A mother, together with her son, was reproaching those who went to church, saying, 'Pray to your God in the church, and we will work at the flour mill; then we will see whose God will give more sacks of flour, yours or ours.' This took place on Sunday. When, after the service, we left the church, we heard that the upper mill stone had fallen, killing the mother and son, and breaking the father's leg. However, the remaining members of the family did not repent but hardened their hearts.

THIRST FOR GOD AMONG EDUCATED PEOPLE.

"We believers received this message, 'We have been stirred by the happenings of the last weeks. For weeks we have been reading the Bible but we cannot understand. Please come to our help.' This message was signed, 'The Intelligentsia of the Town.' Our brethren went, and conversed and prayed with them. Among the seekers were professors and two daughters of clergy. The Intelligentsia shrinks from visiting the meetings openly, for fear of persecution.

The same writer says that in meetings conducted by himself, people of the highest education have been converted. Once, an honourable old greyhaired man left the meeting, saying, 'What can I learn from such uneducated people?' But, after a quarter of an hour, he returned, with his handkerchief in his hand, and coming to the pulpit, asked, 'What must I do? For twenty years I have denied God.' The same night that man gave himself to the Lord, and witnessed to his fellow-workers, teachers and pupils of the middle school, of which he was the director. Seven pupils from the seventh class were also converted, and in spite of the winter frost were baptized by the preacher who gives us these details."

Another Case: "In a town, during a service, the door silently opened, and a young woman entered. After a few moments she came to the platform and said, 'Is it also possible for me? My husband has been killed by them. My son and daughter have been taken from me, and I have nowhere to go, and only because I have been educated in High School. It is impossible for me to continue to live. In my pocket I have a deadly liquid. I heard your beautiful singing and entered. Please save me.' The same night she found peace in God. Later on, when again visiting the town, I met her. She said, 'God has helped me wonderfully. I have got back my daughter, and the Lord has given me a place in a clinic. Come with me and we will arrange a meeting.' I found that she had already done much in this place, conversing with the doctors and the sick ones. Two had already been converted, and two more were brought to the Lord in my presence."

THE MOST DANGEROUS ENEMIES.

In Russia, previously, the professional preachers of the Gospel were persecuted. Now, however, the circumstances have changed. The persecutors in Russia have openly declared that the most dangerous are not those who proclaim the Gospel for remuneration, but those who do it voluntarily, without remuneration, for the sake of their personal conviction.

It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that the decree published in May 1929, was especially against the most eager evangelists, the voluntary ones. This decree binds the workers to their living places so that they are not able to go round and evangelize the neighbourhood. The preachers are asked to promise that they will not go round preaching and will not allow other preachers in their districts. For a long time the believers debated this question, whether to give the signatures or not. It was at last decided to leave the question for every preacher to settle individually. What finally happened I do not know, for at present the signature has no meaning, as the majority of the preachers are in prison. The village authorities openly declared, 'If in the religious persecutions you commit something unlawful, do not be afraid, for you will not be punished!'

Not long ago the Baptists were ordered to liquidate their Union. In some towns all the prayer-houses have been taken from the believers. But the religious movement among the believers does not die out, for in the remoter places even baptisms are taking place.

THE HOT CHAMBERS.

"Some of us preachers were first placed in hot rooms and then in cold ones. I personally spent several hours in such rooms. From the dry heat the floor and walls became hot. Undressed, we were covered with perspiration. Some of our brethren had to spend a whole night in the hot room. Undressed, they lay on the floor near the door, and eagerly breathed in the air that came in through the openings between the planks of the door."

"At Easter, whole crowds of the Catholic peasants of White Russia secretly crossed the border into Poland, in order to participate in the Easter service. Those who did not succeed in crossing stood at the border, and from a distance listened to the sound of the Church bells in Poland."

The Journal, "Puteshestvennik," published in North America, gives a message from Odessa, Russia: — "The work of God is proceeding here with blessing. God, through His Spirit, is sending His joy, consolation and peace. Last year our Union had an increase of 2,000 baptized souls. We have more than 500 churches, with 25,000 members. We are thankful to the Lord that in this difficult time He makes it possible for us to preach His Word. We rejoice that the Lord is baptizing many with His Holy Spirit, but the opposition also is very great. Conditions with us are the same as with all believers in Russia. We have been robbed of the possibility of publishing any religious literature. The 'Godless' incite the people against the believers, and our prayer-houses are taken away. In Odessa we had two big prayerhouses. One is already taken away and the other is on the point of being taken. We shall be obliged to gather as Christ says, 'Where two or three are gathered together in My Name there am I in the midst of them.'

FROZEN CHILDREN.

Within 46 days the Moscow police have picked up from the streets 1,025 dead bodies of frozen children. During the same time 7,385 half-frozen children have been taken to the hospitals. In a frost of 30-40 degrees these children have

Trials and Triumphs on the Mission Field

NOTE : We consider that the tidings from our beloved Missionaries form the most interesting pages of our Magazine and we feel sure that the following messages (translated from the Russian by Rev. Robert Fetler) will be read very gratefully and prayerfully. Let us continually remember at the Throne of Grace these devoted workers, while we thank God with all our heart for the blessing He has so graciously given.

RUSSIA

WITH THE LORD.

We have just received information that one of our missionaries, Brother C., in exile in Siberia, passed away, in the presence of his dear wife, on May 13th, to be with his Lord.

Please pray for his dear bereaved ones, for whom life will now be very difficult.

TRIED BY FIRE.

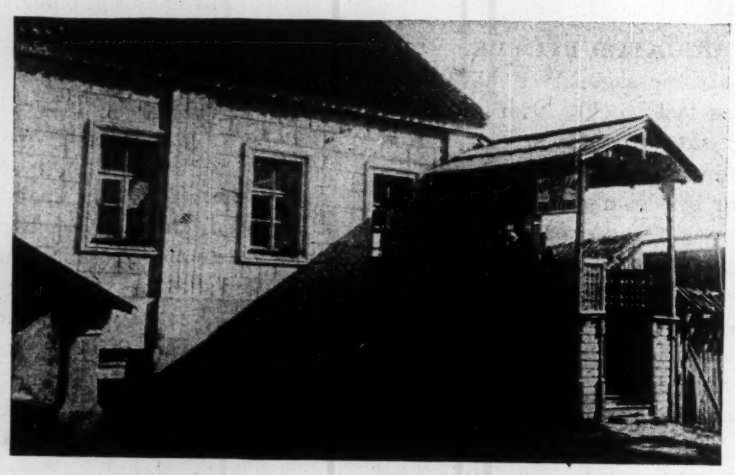
"Praise the Lord we are still alive and are watching in the Lord. As before, we have to endure extreme suffering for the Lord's sake, and for the sake of our little children. We believe that in the future the position will improve.

We thank you that you do not forget us. The Lord Himself reward you a hundredfold. Praise the Lord, the spring was very good; the rains were frequent, and all is growing well, especially the winter corn, so that we are looking forward to a good harvest.

The meetings are still being held, but it is very sorrowful that because of the 'winter cold' many have become lukewarm and some even frozen. Only now are we able to see who are really children of God, and who are Christians only by name, or by passport. But on the other hand we rejoice that the Lord is purging His Bride. Surely His Coming must be near. Our prayer is that we may be kept faithful to the end.

The meetings were started again on the 11th May. Oh, what joy we had! And not a few tears were shed by the children of God, but they were tears of joy. Many thanksgivings were offered to the Lord for this opportunity of communion with his children.

Materially everything is very expensive."



Exterior of Gospel Hall in Kraslava, Latgalia.

"PERSECUTED, BUT NOT FORSAKEN."

"Have received all your communications. May the Lord reward you a thousandfold, here and in the Glory.

We are, praise the Lord, in health. Our position is described in 2 Cor. 4, verse 8 to the end. We continue to work slowly, and on Whit Sunday we shall, D. V., have a Baptismal Service. You have done for us what is said in 2 Cor. 7 : 4-5. and Philemon 2-7.

The weather for a long time was very cold, but now there is great heat."

ABUNDANT BLESSINGS.

"The Lord has abundantly blessed me this month with new members for baptism. We have already prepared for baptism on the 8th June, 78 souls, men and women, young and old. I rejoice especially that many young people have been converted to the Lord and are joining the Church. The workers are few, exhausted in the work, and feeling physically feeble, but spiritually they are strengthened and rejoicing. Pray for me and my family. Materially we are undergoing hardships. Fat is not to be had.

Greeting to all co-workers on the mission field."

POLAND

PERISHING SOULS — AND NO MESSENGERS.

A MESSAGE FROM A FORMER RIGA B. S. STUDENT.

"For a long time I have wanted to inform you of my life. The time spent with you in the Bible School in Riga will remain in my memory for the whole of my life. This year I had the privilege of attending a three months' Bible Course in Radost near Warsaw. This year I am at home.

The work of the Lord is suffering from lack of workers. For the whole district we have only one preacher. We have believers in only seven villages. All the rest of the district (about 70 villages and two smaller places) are without the Gospel, as there is no one to take the Good Tidings to the people.

Some souls, having noticed and heard about their sinfulness, come and ask us to go to them to show them the Way of Life, but often their requests cannot be granted because the men are lacking. The district preacher has much to do among the believers and is unable to go. When I am free from my physical labour (for I am working at home and helping my parents) I am able to go and help in this great work. Seeing all this, one is constrained to cry 'The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers few.'

Pray for us that the Lord may enable us to win souls for His glory."

P. Paleiko.

"MUCH WORK IN THE LORD'S FIELD."

"We have much work to do in the Lord's field, and many errors to fight against. We decided to build a church, but this is delayed on account of lack of means. The brethren have promised to give what they can, but that will be only a part. But we have faith in God."

THANKSGIVING

We thank our Heavenly Father

For the mighty working of the Holy Spirit, amid persecution in Soviet Russia, especially among the young;

For spiritual hunger and awakening of many souls in various parts of Poland;

For manifestations of God's mighty power in granting religious freedom in certain difficult centres in Poland, and permission for open-air work in Latvia;

For His gracious provision and supply of our Missionaries' spiritual and temporal needs;

For answered prayers in the raising up of many sympathetic friends in America and Canada for our Mission Work;

For faithful, praying friends in Great Britain, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand, and for all the dear Christian men and women who have come to our help with their substance, in our soul-winning efforts on the Russian Mission Fields;

For special, exceedingly great encouragement just received in answer to prayer, from a godly family in Australia who have contributed the very generous sum of £2,000 for the Society's work;

For God's saving grace upon the labours of one of our missionaries in Soviet Russia who baptized 160 converts, in one place, during the month of June.

INTERCESSION

We would ask our Lord

To deliver, sustain, and keep faithful to Himself, His suffering ones in Soviet Russia;

To thrust forth messengers to take the Bread of Life to the perishing souls in Poland and Latvia;

To free from darkness and sin, the perishing masses in Russia, Poland, Latvia and France, and to turn them to Himself;

To enable us to reach more extensively the millions of Russians in Latvia, France and Poland;

To send in special funds for the re-opening of the Riga Missionary Bible Training School;

To graciously remove all obstacles in the Society, and to raise many new friends for our Forward Movement;

To lead all our missionaries and workers into the deeper experience of being crucified with the Lord, and filled with the Holy Spirit for their missionary labours.

A NOTICE TO LEGATORS AND TESTATORS

A number of our friends in America and Canada have made out their wills formerly to the name of The Russian Missionary Society. In view of the fact that Mr. E. E. Shields has been dismissed from the work of the Society and is no longer entitled to receive any funds whatever, and in view of the fact that he is still, without justification, continuing to use the name of The Russian Missionary Society, and is spending a great deal of money donated for missionary purposes in a way altogether different from the objectives of the Society, we hereby request all friends who have mentioned The Russian Missionary Society in their wills to kindly immediately change the designation, and, instead of the Russian Missionary Society, to write in the will, The Russian Faith Mission, Pastor William Fetler, Founder and General Director.

For the benefit of intending legators the following is the full text to be used when bequeathing any legacy to The Russian Faith Mission: —

I give and bequeath to The Russian Faith Mission, Canada (Pastor William Fetler, Founder and General Director), the sum of ---------- Dollars, to be used for the purposes of the said Society, and to be paid by my Executors to the Treasurer of the Mission, whose Receipt shall be sufficient discharge for the same.

THINK OF THE ORPHANS

Many of our Readers will have followed with much interest the work of our Society among the dear orphan girls near Warsaw in Poland.

Mr. Charles Phillips, our Treasurer-in-Chief, who has lately visited Poland, informs us that the roof of the Orphanage is leaking very badly in several places causing much disfiguration to recently decorated ceilings, and, should there be much rain, in a short time the plaster will be destroyed, and then we shall have ceilings to repair as well as to distemper. Then too, the fall of the plaster would, if anyone happened to be in the room, be very dangerous.

Pastor Getze has just written saying that the cost of the repairs to the roof, which is in a very bad condition, will be £100, and he asks for this money.

This need is very urgent, and we print this statement in the hope that many of our friends will respond immediately. Besides the roof, the monthly upkeep of the Orphanage, food and clothing for the orphans, as well as fuel for the coming winter is necessary.

All funds for the Orphanage should be sent: — In Great Britain and Ireland to Mr. Charles Phillips, 43, Newington Butts, London, S.E. 11; in U.S.A. and Canada to A. E. Billester, 476, Lauder Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, and in Australia and New Zealand to Rev. A. L. Leeder, 4, Albert Avenue, Chatswood, Sydney, N.S.W.

been spending their nights in market huts and dustbins, and in the cauldrons in which asphalt is boiled."

A well known Russian writer, Anatoly Kamensky, who came from Moscow at Easter, writing in the Riga Russian Daily Paper, "Sevodnya" ("Today"), says, "You ask about the spiritual interests. Clubs have almost disappeared. Because of the official state lectures the people prefer to stay at home, and it is the same in the case of theatres. And to get fresh air? But one does not get it, for in the streets there are clouds of dust, not because they are building much, but from the dirt and holes. The buildings erected have been only some workers' houses on the outskirts, and a few buildings in the centre. Pushing each other on the streets there are rough, wild men in rags, and many thieves and hooligans. They all speak in a tone of anger, are easily excited, almost overcome with fright and a foretaste of starvation. It is impossible to describe it, for it is a real madhouse.

There is also a seeming atmosphere of haste, as if business were going on, although the work done is not worth an eaten egg.

Under these conditions much consolation is brought by religion. Threefourths of the churches in Moscow are closed. Some impression was made by the letter of Sergius, but for only a moment. The people soon found out that the Metropolitan had been forced to sign it. Some even think they recognize the style of the letter as that of the writer Boris Volin.

The flow to the remaining churches and clergy is great. The clergy is well honoured now. The churches were full at Christmas, although no Christmas trees were sold. At Easter also it was the same, but there were no Easter cakes, and the ringing of Easter bells was forbidden. The church buildings actually gave way through overcrowding."

WOMEN TO THE FRONT

and some other matters

By the General Director

I am glad to be able to report that through Divine Grace there is a strong Forward Movement, in the British Section, in the work of our Women's Auxiliary.

The Women's Auxiliary has always done well, and we are very grateful indeed for the earnest efforts of our former Secretary, Mrs. Boyd Morrison, on behalf of the Women's Auxiliary. We accompany our former fellow-worker with our best wishes and earnest prayers in whatever the Lord may show her to undertake for the cause of the winning of souls.

With equal heartiness we welcome the new Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, Miss Wynne V. Saunders. This sister comes to us after considerable experience in the Lord's work with the Pioneer Mission, and later with the Barbican Mission to the Jews. She comes to us with all the glow of youth and all the experience of a mature Christian worker. She comes to us welcomed by a number of ardent supporters and enthusiastic praying friends. God bless her and make her a blessing.

With especial joy we welcome our new President, Mrs. Hilda Wakefield Richardson of Moyallan, North Ireland. She is one of the few "Die-Hards," (if we may use this expression in connection with Evangelizing Russia), always active for the Lord; now preaching or leading a Bible Class among the policemen; now on a missionary journey to Paris; now in a hospital ward, or in a consecrated retreat with a few people who know how to reach Heaven. This Christian lady has been used of God to encourage again and again the heart of the writer, and others associated with him. May the Women's Auxiliary, under the Presidency of this sister, who would take no glory to herself but to whom Christ is All in All, indeed prosper until thousands of people are reached with the saving message of the Cross of Christ.

We are glad to print here a special message written for the friends of the W. A. by our new President, which no doubt will be read with much interest and profit.

I must further say that in our new Vice Presidents we have Christian ladies of standing, spirituality and character Our Vice Presidents are Miss Harrington, in whose hospitable home the Annual Meeting of the Women's Auxiliary took place a short time ago; Madame Yasnovsky, to whom reference has already been made, Miss Phillips, a life-long friend and supporter; Miss Olney, sister of the well-known Evangelist Mr. William Olney, and who herself has visited Russia and has learned to love the Russian people and the Gospel work among them; Miss Brown, niece of our worthy friend Dr. McCaig, and Superintendent of our Relief Department, who has energetically seen to it that hundreds of bales of clothing have reached the Mission Field to much profit of many people there; and Mrs. Edmondson, a lady of prominence, great spiritual integrity and zeal for the Lord's cause.

For all these ladies we bespeak the earnest prayers of our Readers and Friends, that the Lord may prosper them in every possible way and use them for the advancement of His Kingdom.

The Misses Mathews, Lewis and Grushenkova, all three of whom have seen service on the Mission Field, and are at present in England, have been added to the Council of the Women's Auxilliary to help this work from personal experience and knowledge.

A goodly number of other ladies have joined the Council of the W. A., among them Sister Bertha Groves, Miss E. Higgs, Sister Grace Kemp and Miss W. G. Taylor.

As evidenced from the message of Miss Saunders, the Secretary, there has come a remarkable spirit of unity and enthusiasm among the workers, for which we praise God, for as Charles G. Finney used to say "Unity is an essential necessity for Revival;" and our Lord Himself has prayed that His disciples may be one, in order that the world may believe.

Besides the above workers, Mrs. B. L. Seabourne, the Secretary of the Young People's Auxiliary, has also joined the Women's Auxiliary Council, so as to co-operate, hand in hand, between both branches of the same Society.

Furthermore, Miss Georgina Lewis has been appointed Organizing Secretary for the Society in Great Britain, and Mr. A. E. Seabourne, a Christian Layman of unusual zeal for the Lord, has become Honorary Secretary of the Society for the purpose of presenting the work wherever possible and doing all in his power by testimony, prayer and personal effort to help the cause of the Society at large.

We shall be glad for Churches and organizations to get in touch with these workers, who may address meetings and special services, and in every possible way spread information about the work of giving the Gospel to the Russian people.

Mr.and Mrs. Roseblade are expected in Riga, from England, where they will undertake duties as Missionaries in connection with The Russian Missionary Society. Please pray much, for these two young friends are leaving their friends and relatives in the old country, and coming out to live among strange people and a strange language, but with the same Christ Who is above all.

Let us now jointly look towards the hills, from whence cometh our help. Our help cometh from the Lord, Who alone deserves honour, and praise, and glory, now and for evermore.

A MESSAGE FROM

the President of the Women's Auxiliary,

Mrs H. Wakefield Richardson.

Pastor Fetler has asked me to send a little message to the members of the Women's Auxiliary of the R.M.S.

May I just pass on Our Lord's Easter message to the disciples, "As my Father hath sent me so send I you... Receive ye the Holy Ghost". We are told in St. John 3. 17, "That God sent . . . His Son . . . that the world through Him might be saved" — so — Jesus sends His disciples that the world might be saved. What an amazing honour does He put upon us, but how feebly have we responded.

As the Lord looked on that little band of disciples — poor unknown men and women, His knew how incapable they were of carrying out this great work unless through Him, and so He said "Receive ye the Holy Ghost", the Spirit of Reality, (truth) St. John 14 : 17, Who glorifies Jesus and makes Him a "loving bright reality", who reveals Jesus to His disciples not only as a Crucified Saviour but as a Risen and ever present Lord. "What Jesus gives them is not a simple promise, but neither is it the fulness of the Spirit; it is an earnest. This communication is to the Resurrection what Pentecost will be to the Ascension. As by Pentecost He will initiate them into His Ascension, so by breathing on them now He associates them with His life as a Risen One" (Godet).

From henceforth they knew that their beloved Master and Saviour was nearer to them than when He lived on earth — then His bodily presence could not always be with them, now He was always with them to give them victory in temptation, joy in sorrow, heroism in danger and peace in all things. At Pentecost they were raised to the place of Power and became not only fishers of men, but successful fishers. St. Luke 5 : 10.

Had the Church through the centuries obeyed this command as the disciples did then, surely long ere this the world had been evangelized instead of millions of people never having heard the name of Jesus, and millions more knowing nothing of its power. Shall we not dear friends, obey this command, and by faith receive the Holy Spirit for sanctification and for power in service.

The state of Russia alone is a trumpet call to every Christian to put on the whole armour of God. The thousands of Russian Refugees throughout Europe, prepared by suffering to receive the good tidings of Salvation might be used of God to bring about a great Spiritual revival in Europe.

Do not let us lose this great opportunity. May we lay ourselves on the Altar of absolute surrender that the fire of the Holy Ghost may come down and consume all of sin and self. Let us pray in the Holy Ghost, and work in the Holy Ghost for the salvation of the world. Jesus said — " 'Peace be unto you; as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.'

And when He had said this He breathed on them, and saith unto them, 'Receive ye the Holy Ghost' ". St. John. 20. 21, 22.

"Breathe on me Breath of God
Till I am wholly Thine,
Till all this earthly part of me
Glows with Thy Fire Divine."

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY ANNIVERSARY GATHERINGS.

On Saturday, June 21st, at the kind invitation of Miss Harrington, the Women's Auxiliary and a large circle of friends enjoyed a delightful afternoon and evening at "Hardene", Highgate.

The occasion was that of the Women's Auxiliary Anniversary. The meetings were marked by a deep interest and high enthusiasm, with many a manifestation of the Lord's presence and power, the large attendance proving how many hearts are warm towards our work.

At both gatherings our hostess expressed a warmth of welcome which introduced the happy, helpful spirit that pervaded the whole proceedings.

In the afternoon, when Mr. H. G. Sargeant presided, from whom the gathering received a splendid send-off, the Rev. H. J. Galley, in a fine and fitting word, struck a deeply spiritual note from which the entire meeting took tone.

Miss Phillips and Miss Brown gave most interesting accounts of the work in various branches.

At the evening gathering, Mrs. H. J. Galley occupied the chair and gave a message fraught with much encouragement which surely stimulated us to renewed effort.

Hearts were strangely stirred as Miss Natalie Grushenkova, in Russian costume, spoke of that dark land, comparing it to a once fair garden, where bloomed the flowers of faith, love and peace, but which now is laid waste, those flowers blasted by the blight of infidelity and atheism.

Sister Bell of the Bethnal Green Medical Mission, encouraged our hearts in the Lord with a very tender message which will be long remembered.

In the afternoon and evening, the Secretary, Miss Wynne V. Saunders, in a vivid message sketched Russia's vital need, urging us to loving loyalty and prayer partnership.

Between the meetings, tea was served in the garden, when much happy fellowship was enjoyed.

A well filled needle work stall, many of the articles being brought by our friends, was well patronised, as also was the sweet stall stocked by Miss Harrington.

A further happy note was added to the gatherings by the singing of the Russian students.

The sympathy of a large number of friends unable to attend, was expressed in many kind greetings, and the gatherings received a great cheer and impetus by the arrival of a cable from the General Director and the Treasurer, Pastor Fetler and Mr. Charles Phillips, now in Riga. This message was addressed to our hostess and conveyed appreciation of her great kindness, and a salutation to the whole assembly.

Our hearts go up to God in gratitude for all His goodness, and out to Miss Harrington in grateful thanks for her gracious hospitality; likewise to all who lent a hand and a heart, thus adding to the sum total of success.

A MESSAGE FROM THE W. A. SECRETARY.

"Dear Pastor Fetler,

It is with much joy of heart that I write to tell you of a very happy happening at our Women's Auxiliary Anniversary Gathering on Saturday last.

The splendid rally of friends expressed a unanimous wish that you be sent an assurance of their loving loyalty and renewed determination to stand by you; in prayer-partnership, and practical effort.

How we wish you could have been among us! It would have made your heart glow with gladness, for a spirit of sympathy, and warmth towards you and your work, pervaded the whole atmosphere.

Your cable was received with great enthusiasm, the thought and greeting being keenly appreciated.

God was very gracious. The gatherings were far above our asking, and better than our thought.

Wynne V. Saunders (Secretary).

The Russian Faith Mission stands for the Bible in its entirety, believing in the full inspiration of both the Old and New Testaments, and is willing, if need be, to separate from any who deny its full inspiration, reliability and authority.

We proclaim the Gospel of the Grace of God and believe in the new birth; in total separation from the worldly spirit of the age; in the Trinity of the Godhead; in the Virgin Birth and Deity of Jesus Christ, His atoning Sacrifice through the Blood of the Cross; His bodily Resurrection and Personal Return; in the Eternal Life of the saved and the eternal punishment of the lost.
